

COUNTY CORRESPONDENCE

FLAT RIVER

Born, to Mr. and Mrs. Frank List, on Tuesday, Feb. 10, a boy.

Born, to Mr. and Mrs. T. Prather, on Thursday, Feb. 5, a girl.

Mrs. J. C. Wilson and little son returned to their home in Dupu, Ill., Monday, after having spent a few weeks here visiting relatives. Mr. Wilson accompanied her here but he returned last week.

Frank Simpson of Farmington was a Flat River visitor Monday.

Leeman Rariden visited his mother in Farmington Sunday.

Misses Erna Windle and Golda Whitt were Elvins visitors Sunday.

Vernon Aubuchon of St. Louis, who has been here the past two weeks visiting relatives returned home Tuesday.

Dr. and Mrs. G. B. Williams and daughter, Miss Nellie, and Miss Vida Tucker visited friends in Bonne Terre Sunday.

Earl McAtee of Farmington was a Flat River visitor Sunday.

Mrs. G. Gideon went to St. Louis Monday to again receive treatment from a specialist. She has tuberculosis of the eyes and has almost lost her sight. She will remain for a few days.

Earl Swink of Farmington was a Flat River business visitor Tuesday.

Misses Pauline Tucker, Belva and Mabel Watta, Andy Meador and Iva Haney were Farmington visitors Sunday.

Miss Anna Tetley and Clyde McGuire were married in Desloge Sunday by Rev. Cunningham. The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. P. Tetley. She has made her home in Flat River since childhood and has many friends here. The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. C. E. McGuire of Elvins. He has been employed by J. C. Houser for some time but recently resigned his position here to accept a position in a drug store in Fairbury, Ill., where he and his bride will make their home. They left Sunday afternoon for Fairbury. Their many friends in Flat River and Elvins wish them a long and happy married life.

Earl Scott, Bill Arbuthnot, Clyde Burns, Ernest Fitzpatrick and Joe Covington were Bonne Terre visitors Sunday.

Mrs. H. T. Burns returned to her home in Sparta, Ill., after spending several weeks here visiting Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Wilson.

H. Tucker of Womack visited relatives here this week.

Maek Demman, Warren Belknap and Cloud Cole of Farmington were Flat River visitors Sunday.

Dr. E. Littleton was a Farmington visitor Sunday.

J. Tucker of Womack attended the funeral of Albert Buckingham here Sunday.

The Flat River boys' and girls' basketball teams will play the Farmington teams Friday night at Farmington. Everyone is requested to attend.

Harry Roegner and Harold Hartshorn of Elvins were Flat River visitors Sunday.

Mrs. G. N. McClure of Bonne Terre visited her mother, Mrs. J. H. Kennedy, here Tuesday.

R. Kahn and family of Desloge were Flat River visitors Sunday.

Misses Mabel Hart and Gertrude Ball were Elvins visitors Sunday.

Bryan Bradley of Desloge was a Flat River visitor Tuesday.

G. A. Lawrence spent Sunday in Farmington with home folks.

Miss Mary Long, who has been here visiting Miss Anna Tetley, returned to her home in Indianapolis Sunday.

Dr. G. B. Williams, who has been unable to practice for a few weeks on account of the flu, is again up, but is not yet able to care for all of his cases. He expects to go to Hot Springs, Ark., for a rest of a few weeks.

H. Tucker and family were Farmington visitors Sunday.

Misses Irene and Orena Hise of Desloge were Flat River visitors Sunday.

Herbert Radle of Farmington was a business visitor here Monday.

Misses Pauline Tucker, Iva Haney and Belva Watta were Desloge visitors Sunday.

Samuel U. Emerson, pay master for the St. Joseph Lead Co., spent the latter part of the week in St. Louis, on business.

Mrs. W. Watts and daughters, Misses Belva and Mabel, were Farmington visitors Tuesday.

Albert Buckingham died at the home of his sister, Mrs. S. Tucker, here Saturday. He leaves to mourn his death a wife and four small children, his mother and father and three sisters. Besides his relatives, he leaves a host of friends. The funeral was held Monday evening and the remains were laid to rest in the Bonne Terre cemetery.

Miss Ruth E. Miller, the supervisor of music in the public schools here, spent the first of the week in St. Louis, returning Tuesday.

The Freshmen of the Vocational Home Economics class will serve the teachers of the Grammar School with a valentine luncheon Friday.

Miss Sally Hall Settle spent the last week-end in Potosi visiting home folks.

Miss Alma Williams of Farmington was a Flat River visitor Monday.

Chas. Porter of Desloge was a Flat River visitor Sunday.

Miss Mae Moore and Geo. Lee were united in marriage Wednesday. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lee Moore. Their many friends extend congratulations.

Lon Hodges visited his grandparents at Arcadia Friday and Saturday.

Bert Reeves, whose home was in Esther, died Monday night of pneumonia, following influenza.

ELVINS

Arthur Sherrills of St. Louis visited relatives and friends here Saturday and Sunday, returning to St. Louis Monday.

Miss Edna Robinson visited her aunt, Mrs. Jim Maxon, at Flat River Sunday and Monday.

Joe Hicks, who is employed here, visited his parents at Fredericktown Saturday and Sunday, returning Monday.

Arthur Gallagher and Archie Moore of Flat River were Elvins visitors Sunday.

Mrs. Cobb entertained the Community Club Thursday evening at her home. Those present were: Misses Edith Berryman, Sallie Degrant, Maizie Langley, Mae McGraw, Gertie Clemons, Grace Folfe, Alma Adams, Alma Wolfe, Effie Goggins and Bergetta Claywell and Lizzie Bessinger; Arthur Tucker, Luther Montgomery, Melvin Evans, Homer Clemons, Ernest Berryman, Glen Langley, Ansel Lovvorn and Raymond Hampton and Lee Hollaway. Games were played and dainty refreshments were served. All declared Mrs. Cobb an excellent hostess. They departed at a late hour.

Harry Berryman and Giles Hunt visited Giles' parents in DeLassus Sunday.

Mrs. Stelle Brown of St. Louis has been visiting Mr. and Mrs. Hy. Brown the last of the week. She was first called to DeLassus on account of the illness of her mother and death of a brother.

Henry Queen of Caledonia is visiting his sister, Mrs. Hy. Brown.

Mr. and Mrs. Crawford of St. Louis are visiting Mrs. Crawford's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Woods, here.

Mrs. Bessie Downard died at her home Thursday with influenza. She was 38 years, 11 months and 25 days old. She was laid to rest at the Methodist cemetery here. She leaves three daughters, a mother and a husband to mourn her death—Gladys, age 15, and Beatrice, age 10, and Mrs. Madison Reese of Flat River.

The infant son of Mr. and Mrs. Bill Black died Friday night at the age of 1 year, 6 months and 7 days. He was laid to rest at the Masonic cemetery near Farmington.

John Lee left for St. Louis Saturday to seek employment.

The little son of Mr. and Mrs. Eli Wells died Monday in St. Louis. The body was brought here Tuesday for burial at the Methodist cemetery.

Mrs. Z. Pealate and daughter, Clara, of Esther visited Mrs. Wm. Doiron Wednesday.

Jim Teefor is seriously ill with asthma.

Blacklegoids for Cattle.—Laakman's Drug Store.

Antoine Aubuchon died Friday, Feb. 6th, at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Lawrence Coleman. Mr. Aubuchon was ill two weeks with pneumonia. He was born at French Village in 1849, and died at the age of 77 years. He was married to Martha Woodside. Those surviving are three sons and two daughters—Walter Aubuchon of Flat River, Otto, of Flat River, and Ernest, of St. Louis. He was a member of the Catholic church at River Mines. The remains were laid to rest beside his wife in the French Village cemetery.

Mrs. Sidney St. Gemmie of Flat River visited her sister, Mrs. Eugene Hughes, Tuesday.

VALLES MINES

John Koble is very ill at this writing.

Walter Ratty of Brickey's is visiting relatives here.

Preas Burns was a Festus visitor Monday and Tuesday.

Steve and Ab Sykes were Bonne Terre visitors Monday.

Bud Riddle and C. Richardson left for Indiana Tuesday morning.

Ed Henroid visited relatives in Festus from Saturday until Monday.

Miss Sally Semar was called to her home at Frankland Wednesday, on account of her folks being ill with the flu.

Miss Beasie Reed, is teaching at the Avoca, spent the week-end with her parents at Platin.

Miss Olga Heaton visited at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Chris Statzel the latter part of the week.

Lem Craig died at his home about 2-1/2 miles from Valles Mines Friday morning at 2 o'clock. Mr. Craig was well known and respected, and will be missed by all. He leaves a wife and several children and a host of friends to mourn his death.

Bud Riddle, who has been working in Desloge, returned to his home one day last week.

Clarence Sykes, who has been very sick with the flu, is reported to be getting better.

Mrs. Felix Buscher is visiting relatives and friends in St. Louis at this writing.

Miss Gertrude Riddle visited at the home of Wm. E. Heaton Wednesday and Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Decker and children of DeSoto are visiting their daughter, Mrs. Monroe Nash, at this writing.

Several from here attended the funeral of Lem Craig, which occurred at the Charter cemetery Saturday.

Henry Turley was a DeSoto visitor Saturday.

H. C. Rhodes was a platin visitor Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. E. Heaton and daughter, Aletha, visited their daughter, Mrs. H. C. Rhodes, Sunday.

W. P. Whitesell of Festus visited home folks here Saturday and Sunday.

A. P. Rowe and son, Lindell, visited his father, R. H. Rowe, Sunday.

Miss Mullin Hawk and Eugene Hansbrough visited at the home of Wm. E. Heaton Sunday.

Mrs. C. W. Shannon and daughters, Carrie and Louise, were guests of Mrs. Effie Turley Wednesday.

Mrs. H. C. Rhodes is on the sick list this week.

Mrs. J. L. Richardson and children are visiting relatives at Hazel Run.

Blacklegoids for Cattle.—Laakman's Drug Store.

Mrs. Rena Burns visited her son, John Burns, at Festus a few days during the week.

Mrs. Lizzie Semen of Illinois is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. S. A. Sykes.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Richardson of Desloge are visiting her mother, Mrs. Mary Riddle.

Mrs. C. Statzel, who has been visiting relatives in St. Louis, returned to her home here Monday.

Dr. R. Appleberry of Bonne Terre was a Valles Mines visitor Monday.

Miss Ada Heaton visited her sister,

Mrs. H. C. Rhodes, Monday and Tuesday. Eugene Williams of Leadwood visited his mother here Monday and Tuesday.

CHESTNUT RIDGE

Ellis Doss returned home from St. Louis Monday. He was called to St. Louis on account of the illness of his son, Alfred, who he reports was much better when he left.

Herman Shinn came in from St. Louis last Monday. Herman had a good position in the city, but his mother became anxious about him on account of the flu and called him home.

Mrs. Frank Harter and children all have the measles. They are better, however, and able to be up now, except the youngest child, little Joseph.

The people of Chestnut Ridge are grieved to hear of the death of Mr. Lem Close, who died in Flat River Monday night. Mr. Close at one time lived at Chestnut Ridge and has many friends here who extend sympathy to the bereaved wife and children.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Bowling visited at Esther last Saturday with their son, Bert Bowling, and family.

Will Feezor and little son, Oscar, have recovered from the flu.

The following Chestnut Ridge people are suffering with the flu: Mr. and Mrs. U. G. Hawk, "Grandma" Matkins, Ed Shinn and daughters, Edith and Hattie, Mr. and Mrs. McGuire and son, Cecil, Mrs. Nellie Harter and 3 children, "Grandma" Laws, J. Laws' baby, Kennett Laws' little daughters, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Burgess and family, R. E. Hawn's family of 8 children, Jake Crader, Ellis Doss, Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Haskins. All are getting along nicely, except Mrs. Haskins, who is very sick.

Mr. and Mrs. Tom Marks received a message from Alton, Ill., stating that their little daughter, Loretta, who has been staying with her aunt, is ill with flu. Mr. and Mrs. Marks left Monday evening for Alton.

Blacklegoids for Cattle.—Laakman's Drug Store.

Mr. and Mrs. Bert Bowling and children of Esther are visiting their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Bowling, at present.

Mrs. Alfred Doss and little son and Miss Birdie Doss of St. Louis are visiting their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ellis Doss.

PRIMROSE

Roll Blackwell, of Moontown, motored to Ste. Genevieve Monday on business.

Miss Goldie Whittier was a visitor at the home of Willis Moon Tuesday evening.

Wm. Blackwell, of Moontown, was a business visitor in Bonne Terre Monday.

Mrs. Ida Jones and little son, Lloyd, were visitors at the home of Loss Cash Tuesday evening.

W. W. Snyder transacted business in Bonne Terre Tuesday.

L. Cash was a visitor at the home of Wm. A. Moon Tuesday evening.

Ferman Moon made a trip to Bonne Terre Tuesday.

Rihard Rawson of Bonne Terre was a business visitor here Tuesday morning.

Miss Ethel Whittier was a visitor at the home of Willis Moon Wednesday morning.

Miss Nellie Moon spent Wednesday evening with her sister, Mrs. Annie Cash.

Cecil Demeir made a trip to Bonne Terre one day the fore part of last week.

Mrs. Wm. Rawson and Mrs. Ida Jones and little son, Lloyd, were guests at the home of Wm. A. Moon Thursday.

Mrs. Mary Moon and daughter, Miss Nellie, spent Friday with Mrs. Loss Cash.

Neal Cole, of Prospect, was transacting business in Bonne Terre Saturday.

Jewel Whittier made a trip to Bonne Terre Saturday.

W. W. Snyder was a business visitor in Bonne Terre Saturday evening.

Mrs. Annie Cash spent Saturday with her mother, Mrs. Mary Moon.

Lawton Crossman motored out to Bonne Terre Saturday morning.

Robert Lawson was a Bonne Terre visitor Saturday.

L. H. Cash was a business visitor in Bonne Terre Saturday.

Lola and Bernell Holdman, of Bonne Terre, spent Sunday here at the home of M. W. Jones.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Lawson and little son were guests at the home of the latter's parents, Hr. and Mrs. Wm. Rawson Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Loss Cash spent Sunday evening at the home of Wm. A. Moon.

W. D. Roberts and family have moved to Bonne Terre.

Blacklegoids for Cattle.—Laakman's Drug Store.

There are quite a few on the sick list at Melzo at this writing.

Perry Holdman of near Melzo was a Blackwell visitor one day last week.

Mr. Tucker made a trip to Bonne Terre one day last week.

Mr. Lawson was a business visitor in Bonne Terre Saturday.

Mrs. Hoelzel of Melzo was shopping in Bonne Terre one day last week.

TUNNEL

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Oshia of Crystal City were guests at the home of his brother, Raymond, Tuesday.

Miss Pearl Carter visited at the home of Dr. C. W. Shannon Tuesday.

Dr. A. L. Evans of Bonne Terre made a call here Wednesday.

T. B. Welch of Farmington was a business visitor in this community Tuesday.

Dr. C. W. Shannon was a Tunnel visitor last week.

Mrs. Frank Hammock is very ill at this writing.

Sam Jones of Bonne Terre visited his brother, Robert, last week.

Marvin Oshia of Cadoet was guest of his brother here Wednesday.

S. P. Cole, Jr., visited at the home of H. C. Carter Sunday.

Lee Douglas of Crystal City visited his parents here from Saturday until Monday. Floyd Ochia of Vineland visited his brother here Saturday and Sunday.

A. H. Moore was a Tunnel visitor Monday.

H. C. Carter made a business trip to Bonne Terre Monday.

Misses Edith and Hazel Lock of St. Louis visited their mother, Mrs. A. J. Locke, Sunday.

Miss Gladys Stroupe visited her parents in Bonne Terre the last of the week.

Frank Douglas of DeSoto is visiting his parents at Silver Springs.

Miss Hattie Appleberry visited her parents, Dr. and Mrs. R. Appleberry, of Farmington Saturday and Sunday.

Ray Carter, who had the flu, is recovering very slowly.

Eugene Hansbrough visited at the home of Moore brothers Monday.

Pete Parker was a Tunnel visitor Monday.

Mrs. J. M. Appleberry visited at the home of R. W. Oshia Sunday.

Blacklegoids for Cattle.—Laakman's Drug Store.

Misses Anna Rowe and Gladys Ketcherside were Silver Springs visitors Saturday evening.

Miss Clara Douglas visited here last week.

Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Appleberry were visitors here Wednesday.

Mrs. Frank Douglas visited at the home of R. W. Oshia last week.

J. G. Williams, aged 60 years, passed away at his home in Silver Springs Wednesday, after a short illness. He had been a resident of this place many years and was highly respected. His remains were taken to Doe Run and laid to rest in the Doe Run cemetery. He leaves to mourn his death, a mother, brother, two sisters and a host of other relatives and friends. He was a member of the Methodist church at Valles Mines.

You are gone but not forgotten, Your memory shall never fade; Our lonely hearts shall always linger Where our dear one is laid.

Rest in peace, your cares are ended; Rest in peace, your work is done, You are gone where those who love you

Will soon come, one by one.

BISMARCK

Dr. J. L. Eaton of Farmington was on our streets Monday.

A baby girl arrived at W. M. Devine's home last Friday.

The Bismarck Motor Co. delivered a new Ford automobile to Jesse Woods last week.

Floyd Bushon returned last week from Detroit, Mich., where he has been for the past few months.

Misses Mildred and Gertrude Sherrill had as a week-end guest Miss Marion McKenzie of Leadwood.

Wm. Guder of Fredericktown was in Bismarck on business last week.

Blacklegoids for Cattle.—Laakman's Drug Store.

Miss Maneta Renegar, who has been attending the Arcadia College, is home this week on account of sickness.

Jesse Hunter is home from Cape Girardeau, where he is attending college, his father having been very sick with the flu.

Miss Mamie Berthold is in St. Louis nursing her sister, Alma, who has the flu.

Irving Blanton and wife of DeSoto are spending the week with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. B. H. Blanton.

Andrew, son of Dr. and Mrs. P. H. Barth, died Friday morning, after several days illness with pneumonia.

Funeral services were held at the Lutheran church Sunday afternoon and the body was laid to rest in the Masonic cemetery.

The many friends of Lynn Matkin and Miss Lydia Hinz were much surprised to hear of their marriage last Saturday evening at the Lafayette Park church in St. Louis, the Rev. Chas. Clark performing the ceremony. The young couple will make their home in St. Louis for the present.

CROSS ROADS

Dr. Barron was called to the home of A. J. Kennon last Sunday.

Mrs. Henry Tesreau and two grandchildren of Womack passed through here last Sunday.

Born, to Mrs. Oscar Henry, on last Saturday; a ten-pound girl.

Hazel Wilson returned to her home last Thursday in answer to a message stating her folks were ill with influenza.

Ben LaBrott and Robt. Ferguson attended the funeral of "Grandma" LaBrott near Flat River.

Mrs. Frank Gosney of near Fredericktown spent last week with her aunts, Mrs. Wm. Tesreau and Miss Mathews.

The remains of Mrs. Arthur Kennon were brought here from Flat River last Friday and buried. She died of pneumonia. She leaves a husband, two children, mother, father, several sisters and other relatives. The writer extends sympathy to the bereaved.

Ira Fraysher returned to his home here last Thursday from St. Louis.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Umfleet returned to Flat River Thursday, after spending several days here.

Wm. Lenz was a business visitor at Fredericktown last Saturday.

Mrs. Joseph Vessels and Gus Vessels spent last Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Lenz.

News was received here Sunday morning of the death of Albert Buckingham, which occurred at Flat River where he had been employed. He died of pneumonia, following influenza.

Dr. Barron of Mine La Motte made a professional call here Saturday night.

Ollie King of Womack passed through here Sunday.

Mrs. Deguire and sister of Mine La Motte spent Saturday with their sister, Mrs. John Pirtle.

Robert Ferguson was a Mine La Motte visitor Sunday evening.

Blacklegoids for Cattle.—Laakman's Drug Store.